

Juris Doctor Degree

Florida and most other states require a J.D. degree from an accredited U.S. law school before an individual may sit for the bar examination.

All students in the Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree program must meet the following Required Curriculum in addition to specific Area Requirements with the major area of study. Furthermore, there are additional requirements for students who intend to complete a Certificate of Concentration (<https://catalog.stetson.edu/law/concentrations/>) along with the Juris Doctor degree. The Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree is conferred upon candidates who have successfully fulfilled the requirements outlined in the sections below:

Stetson University College of Law Juris Doctor candidate must earn at least 88 credit hours during 6 semesters in law school residence.

Additionally, each Juris Doctor candidate is required to complete the Professional Responsibility course, as well as, one course in the area of Administrative Law, a Code or Statutory Law course, 6 credits of Experiential Learning, and a Scholarly Research and Writing Project. The candidate must also obtain an overall cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of at least 2.30 (for students who entering in or after Fall 2018) or at least 2.25 (for students who entered prior to Fall 2018), complete the pro bono/public service requirement, satisfy the 65 classroom credit-hour requirement, and be of good moral character, just to name a few.

Transfer Students

New students entering on advanced standing as a transfer student must meet all the graduation requirements set forth by the College of Law, including all required courses (both first-year and upper-level), the area requirements, and a minimum of 88 credits. Students may also be required to complete, re-take, or substitute first-year courses offered by this Law School, for which they have or have not already completed in their first year. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs will determine to what extent courses taken at the original institution will transfer to meet any of these requirements.

Full-Time Curriculum

Required Curriculum (Full-time Program)

Most full-time students who enter the College of Law will complete the required curriculum using the following sequence:

All Externship credits count toward the Experiential Learning Requirement.

All Clinic credits count toward the Experiential Learning Requirement.

Advocacy Board credits (Dispute Resolution Board, Moot Court Board, and Mock Trial Board) qualify as credit toward the Experiential Requirement. However, no more than two experiential credits may be earned from each individual advocacy board. Thus, a student on two boards can earn up to four credits toward the experiential graduation requirement.

Upper Level Writing Requirement:

The Upper Level Writing Requirement may be satisfied by successfully completing a seminar paper, an Individual Research Project (IRP), or Law Review.

Seminar paper: A student may earn upper-level writing requirement credit for completing a seminar paper. To do so, work submitted for the seminar paper must be of publishable quality, as determined by the faculty advisor. If a professor determines that a paper is not of publishable quality, a student may be denied upper-level writing credit, even if the professor determines that the student should receive course credit. Normally, a grade of 2.25 or higher reflects that the student has earned upper-level writing credit and a grade at or below 2.0 reflects that the student has not earned upper-level writing credit. If a professor determines that a student should not receive writing credit for a seminar paper, the professor should inform the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and the Registrar as soon as practicable.

Individual Research Project (IRP): A student may earn upper-level writing requirement credit for completing an IRP. To do so, work submitted for the IRP must be of publishable quality, as determined by the faculty advisor. If a professor determines that a paper is not of publishable quality, a student may be denied upper-level writing credit, even if the professor determines that the student should receive course credit. Normally, a grade of S+ or S reflects that the student has earned upper-level writing credit and a grade of S- or U reflects that the student has not earned upper-level writing credit. If a professor determines that a student should not receive writing credit for an IRP, the professor should inform the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and the Registrar as soon as practicable.

Law Review: Stetson Law Review members demonstrate high academic performance and exacting legal research and writing skills. Pro Bono Requirement

60 required hours (30 hours must be law related)

Residency Requirement

By the end of the last semester, each full-time student is required to have completed:

- 6 semesters of residency (a minimum completion of 10 hours each) OR
- 5 semesters of residency (a minimum completion of 10 hours each plus 2 summer semesters of at least 5 hours each).

Classroom Credits

Complete a minimum of 65 credits of regularly scheduled classroom hours. Please review the policy (<https://stetsonuniversity.navexone.com/content/dotNet/documents/?docid=401&public=true>) for more information regarding this requirement.

Awarding of Diplomas

The College of Law will award diplomas three times each academic year: at the conclusion of the fall, spring semesters, and at the conclusion of the on-campus summer session. Absent extraordinary circumstances, as determined by the College of Law Dean or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, to receive a diploma, a student must have completed all graduation requirements by the date the Registrar establishes for faculty to submit grades for graduating seniors. In addition, absent extraordinary circumstances, the student must not have any pending honor code, conduct code, or criminal charges.

Flex J.D. Curriculum

Stetson's Flex J.D. Program is designed for working professionals or others with daytime commitments. By taking a combination of in-person evening classes at the Tampa Law Center and the Gulfport campus and asynchronous and synchronous online classes, students can earn a law degree in as little as four years.

Students must complete 88 credit hours to graduate and will be required to take classes at both the Gulfport campus and the Tampa Law Center and up to 44 credit hours in an online format. The academic year begins in August, and the estimated time for completion is four years, including summer sessions. Flex J.D. students typically will take eight to 10 credit hours in the fall and spring semesters and four to seven credit hours each summer session. There are short breaks between each academic session.

The first four semesters will be devoted primarily to completing required core courses. Most required classes are taken in the first two years (including the first summer session) Fall and Spring classes meet two evenings per week, generally between 6:00 and 9:00 p.m. During summer sessions, required classes are offered online. Usually one evening of required courses is held in Tampa, with the other evening in Gulfport. During the final two years, students take electives and complete the area requirements. Flex J.D. students can complete their courses with a combination of on-campus and online courses.

After completing the required core courses, students may select courses from throughout the curriculum, including morning, afternoon, weekend or evening courses. Students may take up to 45 total credit hours in Tampa (core courses and electives combined), with the remainder taken at the Gulfport campus or online. Students may take up to a total of 44 credits online. Additional information regarding area requirements, electives and other details are on the academics page (<https://www.stetson.edu/law/academics/home/>).

Estimated time for completing the Flex J.D. program:

After completing 28 credit hours, Flex J.D. students meeting certain academic criteria may transfer to the full-time program after their second fall semester to finish in three years, including summer sessions. For more information, see the policy for conversion (<https://stetsonuniversity.navexone.com/content/docview/?docid=433&public=true&fileonly=true>) between Flex J.D. and Full-Time J.D. Programs:

Courses

NOTES:

Certain elective courses are offered regularly (r) (at least once in 3 semesters) while others are offered occasionally (o). Most elective courses are three (3) credits. Seminars usually fulfill the upper level writing requirement and skills/experiential courses are usually graded S/U. Please check the course schedule for a final determination.

LAW 3030. ACCOUNTING FOR LAWYERS. 2 to 3 Credits.

This course provides an introduction to accounting concepts and its application to the practice of law. This course will assist students in reading and understanding financial statements (balance sheet, income statement, statement of cash flows), financial ratios, time value of money, annual shareholder reports, and other concepts important in the practice of law. This course is designed for students who are unfamiliar with accounting concepts and the prior study or training in accounting (while welcome) is not necessary. A student who earned more than 8 credits in post secondary accounting courses is not eligible to register for this course.

LAW 3045. ADMIN LAW FOR HEALTH CARE. 2 to 3 Credits.

The focus of the course will be on federal and state administrative laws, regulations and procedures dealing with the health care system. This course satisfies the Administrative Law Requirement. (r).

LAW 3040. ADMINISTRATIVE LAW. 3 Credits.

A study of the law concerning the powers & procedures of federal governmental agencies and their role within our constitutional structure. This course satisfies the Administrative Law Requirement. (r).

LAW 3053. ADMIRALTY. 2 to 3 Credits.

An examination of the leading principles and procedural aspects of admiralty jurisdiction and the maritime law of the United States. (o).

LAW 3054. ADOPTION LAW SEMINAR. 3 Credits.

This seminar will focus primarily on domestic adoption law and policy and the foster care system within the United States. The course may cover international adoption law and policy to a much lesser extent. There will be a final paper and an in-class presentation required in lieu of a final exam. LAW 3412 is a recommended pre-requisite but not required. (meets writing requirement).

LAW 3124. DISPUTE RESOLUTION BOARD. 1 or 2 Credit.LAW 3055V. ADV CIV TRIAL SKILLS-VOIR DIRE. 1 Credit.

Develop a thorough understanding of the Jury Selection process, with a special emphasis choosing juries for civil trials. Note: Students who have enrolled in or taken the course on Jury Selection (3608) may not enroll in this course.

LAW 3055D. ADV CIVIL TRIAL SKILLS-DAMAGES. 1 Credit.

Develop a thorough understanding of the Damages issues which come up in civil trials and practice incorporating Damages into the closing argument.

LAW 3063I. Adv. Contracts: Issues, Concepts and Methods. 2 to 3 Credits.

This is an advanced course in the concepts and topics first introduced to students in their first-year Contracts course. This course will cover in-depth some of the difficult topics that were introduced in Contracts (e.g. parol evidence, conditions). It will also include topics that were probably not covered in the Contracts course but are important in practice (e.g. third party issues; letters of intent). Students will study some of these topics from diverse theoretical perspectives (e.g. economic, relational, and critical approaches). They will also study some topics through skill-based methods particularly suited to study of contract topics (e.g. drafting, negotiation). Pre-requisite: LAW 1181.

LAW 3075. ADVANCED CRIMINAL TRIAL ADVOCACY. 2 to 3 Credits.

This course will focus on every aspect of trying a criminal case (murder) from both the prosecution and defense side. In every class, students will participate in exercises involving voir dire, opening statements, direct and cross examination and final arguments. They are critiqued to learn from the exercises. At the end of the semester, the students break out in two groups and prosecute or defend a DUI manslaughter case in a realistic fashion. Trial techniques are discussed throughout the course and explanations are provided so students learn the reasons why objections are appropriate or evidence is presented. This is an advocacy course that requires participation and is recommended for students who want to sharpen their skills in a jury trial setting. Pre-requisites: LAW 2190 and LAW 3920. (r).

LAW 3063. ADV CONTRACTS: COMM AGREEMENTS. 2 to 3 Credits.

This course builds upon the basic Contracts course to explore a series of agreements between sophisticated parties in detail in order to develop the ability to read, understand, and draft contracts effectively. Actual non-disclosure and confidentiality agreements, employment agreements, services agreements, agreements for the sale of goods, lending agreements, and agreements for merger and acquisition will be examined in their entirety, and the issues addressed will be further developed through practical exercises. Pre-requisite: LAW 1181.

LAW 3090. ADVANCED LEGAL RESEARCH. 1 or 2 Credit.

This course will review the basics and then exhaustively explore topics such as legislative history and interpretation, administrative rules and regulations, looseleaf services and other materials in special subject areas such as taxation, labor law and bankruptcy. On-line computer research will be contrasted with the print sources. Emphasis will be placed on the use of the Florida materials. Legal citation systems will be reviewed. (r).

LAW 3696. ADVANCED LEGAL WRITING. 1 to 3 Credit.

This course surveys documents of legal practice and the skills needed to write them. Students will engage in problem-solving via legal analysis and writing, receive hands-on drafting experiences, and gain greater sophistication and power as legal writers. Some sections will emphasize contract drafting while others will survey a wider range of practice documents. Specific emphasis will be announced in advance of the semester. Examples: Advanced Legal Writing: Contract Drafting; Advanced Legal Writing: Writing for Practice Survey; Advanced Legal Writing: Non-Litigation Drafting (r).

LAW 3129. AMERICAN LEGAL HISTORY. 2 to 3 Credits.

An examination of issues and themes in American law from the 18th century to the present. The course is taught from a law and society perspective, studying the ways law affects and is affected by broader social, economic, and political structures and patterns. Special emphasis is placed on the role of law in both implementing and challenging racial, gender, and class injustices, including in the areas of slavery and segregation, coverture and patriarchy, and labor and wealth/poverty. Areas of law studied may include constitutional law, private law (contracts, torts), labor law, civil rights law, and criminal law. The meaning of American law in the context of American democracy will also be considered. (r).

LAW 3130. ANTITRUST LAW. 2 to 3 Credits.

A study of the antitrust laws of the United States as they relate to agreements between competitors, monopolization, mergers and restrictive trade practices. (o).

LAW 3140. APPELLATE PRACT & ADVOC: CIVIL. 3 Credits.

Offered since 1988, the course emphasizes the practical aspects of appellate practice in Florida appellate courts, with comparisons to practice in the federal system. Students study how to prepare for and take an appeal, including preserving errors in the trial court—an important topic for trial court litigators. The course emphasizes writing and advocacy skills, with chapters and classes on each. During the semester students prepare a brief from a record, prepare a motion, view a video of an actual oral argument, and present an oral argument. The class covers issues of appellate ethics and professionalism, and has typically included guest participation by one or more appellate judges and practitioners. The course should be of interest to students who may want to consider an appellate practice, who want to develop the capability of handling appeals from a trial practice, or who plan to be trial litigators and will benefit from an understanding of the appellate process. Grading is based on the written assignments and oral argument. There is no final exam. The class satisfies an experiential requirement. (r).

LAW 3140C. APPELLATE PRAC & ADV: CRIMINAL. 3 Credits.

This course addresses the procedural and substantive aspects of Florida criminal appellate practice. The course touches on every facet of the state criminal direct appeal process, from commencing the appeal and ensuring the record is complete, to locating error within the record, standards of review, briefing the issues, presenting argument, and post-decision motions and subsequent review. The course focuses on issue identification and advocacy, written and oral, and students will identify issues from a record, write a brief, and present oral argument. The class includes guest presentations by appellate judges and District Court staff. Students considering criminal trial or appellate practice will benefit from this course. The class satisfies an experiential requirement. (r).

LAW 3145. ARBITRATION. 2 Credits.

This course covers arbitration and related forms of Alternative Dispute Resolution. Students will study the legal framework including, but not limited to the relevant Florida and federal statutes; the Florida Rules of Court on Arbitration; other Florida and federal court rules (including local rules); and the relevant rules on ethics and professional responsibility. The course will involve students in a variety of practical exercises. This course satisfies the Experiential Requirement. (r).

LAW 3152. BANKRUPTCY. 3 Credits.

A survey of the rights and remedies of debtors and creditors during bankruptcy proceedings, focusing primarily on consumer bankruptcy cases. This course satisfies the Code Requirement. (r).

LAW 4100. BANKRUPTCY CLINIC. 5 Credits.

Offered during the fall and spring semesters (not summer, given the challenge of developing these professional skills in a short time period). By offering it in both fall and spring, more students can participate, and matters not completed at the end of a semester can be picked up by a student in the following semester (in some cases, the pro bono attorney mentor will need to complete the case given the timing and student availability). It also allows students to coordinate the clinic semester based on timing of relevant courses and bar clearance.

LAW 3155. BANKRUPTCY JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIP. 1 to 5 Credit.

Student interns are assigned to work with bankruptcy judges in the Middle District of Florida during the semester. Each student is required to work closely with the judge(s) and law clerks performing research and writing assignments with respect to current cases before the court. Students also have the opportunity to attend and observe the courtroom performances of counsel (i.e., motion hearings, mediations, arbitrations, and trials), especially regarding those cases with respect to which they have been assigned work. Student participants are selected based upon demonstrated academic performance and interest in bankruptcy practice. Four credit hours are provided for participation in the fall semester. This is a pass/fail graded course. Suggested pre-requisite: LAW 3152 or LAW 3156. (o).

LAW 3156. BANKRUPTCY SEMINAR. 2 to 3 Credits.

This seminar will provide in-depth coverage of various issues in Chapter 11 business reorganizations, such as considerations in filing for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection, obtaining financing within the bankruptcy, use of pre-petition and post-petition assets, appointment of professionals in the bankruptcy, and filing of and voting on plans of reorganization. (meets writing requirement) Pre-Requisite: LAW 3152.

LAW 3154. BUSINESS ENTITIES. 4 Credits.
