

Pass/Fail Policy

Most Stetson University courses award grades at the end of the course. Some courses are offered regularly that are credited on a Pass/Fail basis. In addition, students may elect to take as Pass/Fail two courses that normally award a letter grade of A through F. With the Pass/Fail option, a passing grade (D- or higher) is reported as a P, credit is earned, and the grade has no impact on the GPA, while a failing grade continues to be reported as an F, no credit is earned, and the F is included in the GPA. A student choosing to exercise this option must do so by the date specified in the Academic Calendar (<http://www.stetson.edu/administration/registrar/academic-calendars.php>) through completion of a Pass/Fail form available on the student's MyStetson (<https://my.stetson.edu/#/>) page, or on the Registrar's Forms Page (<https://www.stetson.edu/administration/registrar/forms.php>). No changes to the Pass/Fail election may be made after this established deadline.

The Pass/Fail option may not be used for major, minor, or foundation courses (courses used for the first-year seminar, junior seminar, writing, or quantitative reasoning requirements). In addition, the Pass/Fail option may be restricted in specific courses, as determined by a College/School or University curriculum committee.
