¹ A&S students must take 5 of the 6 Knowledge of Human Cultures courses and 2 Personal and Social Responsibility courses, to include a Junior Seminar.

² REES 200B is offered every third semester. It should be taken as soon as possible.

³ HIST 240H and HIST 241H are each offered every third semester.

2 Advising Course Plan - Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies Major

4 These courses are offered in rotation. In their first two years, then, students should complete REES 200B as well as the required course in history and political science.

5 Majors must take one of the following courses: REES 311V, REES 320A, REES 340V, REES 341V, CREA 371V, ARTH 372V, CREA 372V, HIST 372V. The humanities course may be taken at any point during the four years.

6 We recommend study abroad fall or spring of junior year. Generally, this semester will fulfill the advanced language requirement as well as at least one of the REES electives. If a student elects not to study abroad, they should take language, a REES elective, and any other electives to fulfill requirements in the College.

7 The Advanced Language course may be RUSS 301L, RUSS 302L, or RUSS 401L, or fulfilled by language study abroad.

8 We recommend taking language all four years to achieve proficiency. If a student elects not to take language every semester, the course can be replaced with an elective.
