

Course Evaluations

It is the responsibility of all Stetson University students to complete the official course evaluations for all courses in which they are enrolled. Course evaluations are to be completed within the designated period; for fall and spring semesters, the designated period is the last two weeks of classes, no later than the end of Reading Day.